February 1998

Dear Clergy:

Greetings to you during this Lenten Season. May these days of reflection bring you and your congregations new growth as we move toward Easter.

I am writing to introduce you to a "new and improved" program for Samaritan Institute for Religious Studies. Proficiency Courses are now being offered to lay people at a flat fee of $50.00 per class. We are also offering these same classes for continuing education credit for only $65. Though this offering is not new, Samaritan does want to improve our offering to laity by making more courses accessible and available.

The Course Listing is not always easy to decipher to someone unfamiliar with Samaritan. While we look in the year ahead to improve our printed materials, we need your help now in getting the word out to your congregation. You know which classes will be of interest to your parishioners. For example, the Bible and Sexuality course have been quite popular. Please find ways to introduce Samaritan to your members so that they might make use of these classes to grow in mind and spirit.

As you review the enclosed Course Listing, you will see that we have tried to make the registration process as easy as possible. Please call us if you have any suggestions or questions. Thank you for helping Samaritan fulfill its mission to provide nonhomophobic theological education, to assist the UFMCC in training members for leadership in the 21st Century.

Peace to you,

Marilyn B. Alexander

REGISTRATION CATEGORIES AND FEE SCHEDULES FOR SAMARITAN COURSES

| FOR CREDIT | $90 per credit. 1 credit = 12 classroom contact hoursStudent receives a transcripted grade; grade is figured into GPA; student receives institutional credit; courses for credit count toward certification programs. |
| AUDIT | $50 per credit. 1 credit = 12 classroom contact hoursStudent receives a transcripted "grade" of Audit (indicating attendance in the class, but no completion of assignments); audit is not figured into GPA; audit does not count toward the completion of a certificate program. | CEU | Continuing education units are determined on the national formula of one CEU = 10 classroom contact hours. Students earn continuing education credit from Samaritan and receive a Continuing Education Certificate. Continuing Education registration will not count for proficiency courses and does not figure into GPA. |

Normally this will be a reduced fee structure that will be determined on a case-by-case basis. The following criteria will be used to determine the cost of a continuing education course: (1) administrative cost for producing the course, such as space rental, materials cost, instructor cost--travel, lodging, per diem; (2) anticipated enrollment; (3) whether or not meals and/or lodging for students are included; (4) whether or not the program/course is underwritten by grant monies or other means; (5) the scope and content of the course--part of a General Conference, proficiency course available for CEU, seminar or workshop designed specifically as a CEU. (Note: Selected proficiency courses may be available for continuing education credit.)

Approval of a course/seminar/workshop for CEU credit is determined by the Academic Dean of Samaritan.

Designated courses from the 3rd trimester, 1996 are available for continuing education credit. The cost is $50 per course, plus the $35 registration fee.

Samaritan Institute Scholarship Fund

effective Feb., 1996

Background

Created in 1996, the Samaritan Institute Scholarship fund formalizes six years of providing scholarships for deserving individuals. The scholarships were awarded through Samaritan's partnership with the Districts of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches (UFMCC).

The Fund is now administered by the Samaritan Institute for Religious Studies. Awards are granted by the Samaritan Scholarship Committee which consists of the Academic Dean, the Chair of the Academic Affairs Committee of the Samaritan Board of Trustees and a UFMCC District Coordinator (seated in rotation).

Title of Award

Scholarship awards will be known as: Samaritan Institute Scholarships.

Scholarship Guidelines

Samaritan Institute will provide a selected number of scholarships to persons pursuing non-homophobic religious education through Samaritan Institute. The scholarships are provided to assist those who would not otherwise be able to participate in a Samaritan course-of-study.

The Fund's goal is to increase opportunities for persons pursuing liberating theological education to better serve the LesBiGayTrans community through the ministries of the UFMCC.

Area, Field of Study

The scholarship is open to all persons who are pursuing leadership skills to better serve the UFMCC.

Amount and Frequency of Scholarship

All scholarship awards are dependent on the availability of funds. Each individual scholarship will provide up to 50% of the cost for a single course or program (e.g. Polity/Practics).

Eligibility Requirements

Students are eligible to apply for a scholarship from Samaritan Institute if they meet the following minimum criteria:

1. Nomination requirements: Each application for a scholarship must be verified by:

   - the Supervising Clergy, Advisor or Pastor (for persons not pursuing credentials) of the applicant's Metropolitan Community Church.
2. Academic Requirements: Passing grades for any previous Samaritan course.
3. Financial Requirement: Establishment of financial need.

Selection Process

Samaritan Institute and/or its designates will make all decisions regarding the selection of individuals who receive scholarships.
